SERVICES

WHAT TO DO IF YOU HAVE LOST YOUR HEARING AID

If you have lost your hearing aid and have been unable to find it for over 1 week you should contact the NHS Lanarkshire Audiology Services Central Advice by telephone or email.

They will then arrange an appropriate follow up appointment for you to get your hearing aid replaced.

The type of appointment arranged may differ from person to person due to the type of hearing aid being replaced.

If you have not had a recent hearing test they may arrange for a hearing assessment in the first instance.

All 'Lost Hearing Aid' replacements are offered an appointment and cannot be seen at the 'Open Repair Clinics'.
